

NAME

Chapter 2 Lesson 3 (pp. 31–32)

Combine Sentences with Adjective Clauses

Activity A Each sentence below is missing a relative pronoun. Write the correct relative pronoun (that, who, or whose) on the line provided.

1. Come to the ice skating rink _____ is located on Shaw Park Avenue.
2. My sister, _____ looks like my mom, just learned how to do a double axel.
3. Do you know _____ won the figure skating contest last year?
4. Donna Maria has a friend _____ uncle was in the Olympics.
5. It was the first day of skating class _____ we learned how to stop.

Activity B Combine each pair of sentences by creating an adjective clause.

EXAMPLE Babe Ruth was a famous baseball player. He played in the American League from 1914 to 1935.

Babe Ruth, who was a famous baseball player, played in the American League from 1914 to 1935.

1. Ruth is the most celebrated player in baseball history. He was left-handed.

2. Ruth first played for the Red Sox. The team went on to win the 1918 World Series.

3. Ruth received many awards. He is considered a truly great player.

4. Helen Woodford died in a fire in 1929. She was Ruth's first wife.

5. Baseball is a characteristically American game. It is not played in other countries as much as it is played in the United States.

