

NAME

Chapter 2 Lesson 4 (pp. 33–34)

Combine Sentences With AppositivesActivity A

Combine the sentences below into one sentence. Decide which information you want to emphasize. Make one sentence an appositive.

Tip

Remember to place a comma before and after an appositive that appears in the middle of a sentence.

EXAMPLE Michelle has three brothers. She works at a flower shop. She wants to be a florist.

Michelle, who has three brothers, works at a flower shop because she wants to be a florist.

1. Anthony is a very talented artist who lives in Chicago. He mostly makes pottery.

2. Sue Ann listens to classical music while she is cooking. She prefers to listen to jazz music on her way to school.

3. Theo is from Argentina and learned to play polo as a child. He is extremely competitive.

4. Jo reads almost two books a week. She likes poetry. She reads novels.

5. Chris wants to be an architect because he likes to draw and build. He makes bookshelves and tables out of wood.

Activity B

Write four sentences about one of your friends. Use at least two appositives.
