

NAME

Chapter 2 Lesson 3 (pp. 29–30)

Decide on the Adjective or AdverbActivity A

Each sentence below has an adjective or adverb error. Cross out the incorrect word, and write the correct one above it.

EXAMPLE I ^{normally}~~normal~~ am healthy, but now I have a cold.

Tip

Adjectives describe nouns or pronouns. Adverbs describe verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs.

1. Last week, Andrea did not feel good.
2. She is usual energetic, but last week she felt tired and had a fever.
3. Andrea's worriedly mother made her stay home from school.
4. Over the week, Andrea slow got better.
5. On Tuesday she wasn't hungrily, but by Thursday she happily ate two apples and a grilled cheese sandwich.
6. Reading books and comics kept her in a well mood.
7. On Friday, she laughed loudly at one of her books.
8. Hearing Andrea laugh made her mother happily.
9. Andrea excited smiled at the idea of going back to school.
10. She wanted to share her book quick with her friend Chris.

Activity B

On the lines below, write sentences that include the adjective or adverb in parentheses.

1. (well) _____
2. (carefully) _____
3. (good) _____
4. (quickly) _____
5. (colorful) _____