

NAME

Chapter 2 Lesson 4 (pp. 27–28)

Compare Correctly

Activity Read the comparisons below. If the modifier is used correctly, write C. If the modifier is used incorrectly, write the correct word on the line.

Tip

Four sentences are correct.

- _____ 1. Science used to be my less favorite subject of all.
- _____ 2. I enjoy it most this year than last year.
- _____ 3. I like it more better than last year's science class because I learn how to put science into action.
- _____ 4. Fridays are the better days of the week.
- _____ 5. On Fridays, we visit a park that's larger than our school.
- _____ 6. It has an urban garden that is run by the most newest organization in the city.
- _____ 7. The organization's leaders are more passionate about science than anyone I know.
- _____ 8. Jeanette explains photosynthesis in the creativest way imaginable.
- _____ 9. Of the three leaders, Tasha is funnier.
- _____ 10. The lab reports we write are longer than our English essays.
- _____ 11. Did you have less fun today than last Friday?
- _____ 12. Learning about how plants and trees clean the air was the better part of the class.
- _____ 13. Our part of the garden has the healthier plants of all.
- _____ 14. I used to do most bad in science than my other classes.
- _____ 15. Now I'm one of the bestest students in my class.