

NAME

Chapter 3 Lesson 2 (pp. 31–33)

Use Pronouns CorrectlyActivity A

If the pronoun in the sentence is used correctly, write C. If it is incorrect, write the correct pronoun on the line.

- _____ 1. Jeanette and me saw the storm quickly approaching.
- _____ 2. Our father, a scientist and professional storm chaser, was already loading the recording equipment in the truck.
- _____ 3. It's him who chasing the storm instead of running for cover.
- _____ 4. A recent TV show about storm chasers has a film crew taping they.
- _____ 5. Chasers follow storms for hundreds of miles in them trucks.
- _____ 6. Chasing storms sounds exciting, but it is a dangerous job.
- _____ 7. Jeanette takes Dad's storm videos and uploads them on a website.
- _____ 8. Give the latest film to she.
- _____ 9. I help choose the best pictures to feature on the site.
- _____ 10. We take this job very seriously.

Activity B

Revise each sentence to fix the pronoun reference problems.

1. Harry gave Derrick his book about tornadoes.

2. In the book, it said that most tornadoes occur in the spring.

3. Mr. Ling asked Nick if his drawing was helpful.

4. Nayla and Julie both prepared presentations, she gave hers first.
