

NAME

Chapter 1 Lesson 1 (pp. 15–17)

Express a Complete Thought

Activity A Identify the sentence fragments below by writing F on the line. Place a checkmark next to complete sentences.

Tip

Two items are complete sentences.

- _____ 1. High-speed railways in Japan and Europe.
- _____ 2. The first high-speed train in Japan in 1964.
- _____ 3. Travels over 200 kilometers per hour, or 125 miles per hour.
- _____ 4. Because they travel fast speeds over relatively short distances.
- _____ 5. They're convenient.
- _____ 6. Carry more passengers, at a higher speed, than a highway full of cars.
- _____ 7. The TGV, Shinkansen, and Eurostar examples of high-speed trains.
- _____ 8. Since high-speed trains often travel between two large cities.
- _____ 9. The trains usually arrive at the train station on time.
- _____ 10. Most often run on electric power.

Activity B Rewrite four fragments from Activity A to make them complete. Add words or phrases as needed.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____
